

Tommy Brenner is a Business Risk Advisor for the Hummel Group the past 3 years. He works with clients to help identify the risk in their operation and develop a protection strategy through risk management and insurance.

Andy Yost is a Benefit Risk Advisor at the Hummel Group. Prior to joining the Hummel Group, Andy worked in sales and operations for 10+years. Andy works closely with employers in Richland County, and all-over Northeast Ohio, in evaluating their health and benefits plan, implementing strategies, and advocating for their employees as they access healthcare. Due to his own personal journey of navigating the sometimes not so fun healthcare, Andy brings a unique perspective to the businesses he works with to make sure businesses and their employees have perfect clarity on their health plan.
